This and That

Notes from the Editor

Check out the Fifth Wheel above our masthead this month. Go big or go home, right? (Spotted on-line by Desse).

As I write this, The MTC's Hannibal, MO camp-in at Mark Twain campground is underway. Laura, Reb and Tiara, Wayne and Pam, and Mark had plans of attending—maybe we can get some photos for the August NL. Laura reports that the MTC group all shows up in big motor homes and have permanent sites near the pavilion. I guess you can still call that “camping,” especially with the addition of some Heartland Sundae Riders in smaller abodes!

Dues — Last call—if you haven't yet sent your two bucks to Laura ($10 for those wanting a printed copy), please do so now. It's not a whole lot, but it helps offset expenses especially as relates to the newsletter. Dues can be sent to Laura or directly to Ray Ostwald, Treasurer.

No feature articles this month, but I think I can promise something for August.

Next Up: Middle of Nowhere, July 28—30

Lee and Tiara have finally nailed down the date for this popular annual campout near Dyersville / New Vienna, Iowa. Please call Lee if more info is needed.

Fall Colors Plan Finally Gels

By Chuck Tydrich

Fall Colors will be at the SWISS AIRE motel in New Glarus, WI. on the weekend of October 13-15. Hotel number is 608-527-2138.. I have 2 single kings blocked off, under my name, for $131/night and 3 double queens for $138/night. They will be on hold until October 1. When you reserve your room, they will take a $50 deposit and you may cancel your room up until the day before arrival, but they will keep your deposit. I booked a week later than usual in hopes of better color in southern Wisconsin, hope this date works for you.

Glenn and Joan Winkelman would probably agree, we've come a long, long way from the Indians of bygone years!
